September 2010

NEXT FACULTY MEETING

The next faculty meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 8, 2010, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Campus Center South Lounge. The Admission office will be holding a pre-meeting reception in the Admission office lobby, Selwyn Hall North, from 3:00 – 4:00. Immediately following the Faculty Meeting please join President & Mrs. McMillan, along with administrators from the President's Cabinet, for the annual President's Reception in the Mezzanine of the Center for the Arts for cocktails and light fare, which will begin at 5:00 p.m.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Guillaume de Syon (History) was featured in an NPR Marketplace story on airline food. (Yes, as an aviation historian he seems to be the go-to guy on this topic now, and he trekked to Harrisburg to record it at the local NRP affiliate!) The link to the transcript of the story or to hear it online is <http://marketplace.publicradio.org/display/web/2010/05/19/pm-a-history-of-in-flight-food/#>.

Sidney Dreese (Library) gave a presentation on July 14 in the State Bookstore, Harrisburg, which was also televised on PCNtv. The title of the talk was "A Newspaper Comes to Town: The Mifflinburg Telegraph." In addition, the book A Civil War Home Front Study: The Mifflinburg Telegraph Tells the Story was the first e-book published by the bookstore.

Ethan Joella (ESL) received his PhD in political science and international affairs from The University of Southern Mississippi. His dissertation dealt with the casinos' role in rebuilding the Mississippi Gulf Coast region after Hurricane Katrina. Also, his story "Pelican Song" was a second-place finalist for the Robert Olen Butler Fiction Prize 2010. This story will appear in Del Sol Press's Robert Olen Butler Fiction Prize 2010 anthology.

Karen Jogan (Spanish) served as team chair for a Pennsylvania Department of Education review at York College in June. She participated in a Yale University three-week seminar, "Indigenous cultures of Ecuador" in July, held at Yale and on site in Ecuador. In August, she was a keynote speaker at the 18th annual convention of Peru TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages), held in Arequipa Peru. She was also invited to a reception in Washington at the Embassy of Chile, hosted by Chile's Ambassador, to honor the Middle States accreditation of Universidad Mayor in Santiago and Temuco Chile. Karen had been a member of that university's Middle States accreditation team visit.

Kate Lehman (Communications) recently spent three weeks in Salvador, Brazil as a Teacher-in-Residence through Partners of the Americas' cultural exchange program. While there she observed English classes, participated in cultural programs, and led workshops on writing skills and women's studies for ESL teachers and students. Earlier in the summer, she conducted research for her forthcoming book at the University of Wyoming's American Heritage Center archive, which awarded her a research grant.

September 2010

Stephen Mech (Biology) and Sara Parsons ('10) presented their work on small mammal population dynamics at the American Society of Mammalogists Annual Meeting in Laramie, Wyoming in early June.

Lindsay Phillips (Psychology) presented at two conferences this summer. At the 22nd annual meeting of the Association for Psychological Science, Boston, MA, she did a presentation about teaching psychology. She also took a DCP graduate, Donna Wright, who presented her research (which Lindsay co-authored), "Time spent with dogs increases attachment but not happiness." At the 8th Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues Biennial Conference, New Orleans, LA, she presented her research, "Homelessness: Public perception of causes and solutions."

Kristen Woodward (Art) will be exhibiting her new Hex-Mex signs at Kutztown University's exhibition titled Adjacencies? The show explores regionalism in the seven county area. Nancy Sarangoulis is also in the exhibit, which opens September 9, from 4-6 pm.

Joseph Yarworth (Education) presented a seminar entitled "Training the Latest Generation of Pennsylvania Teachers" at the annual summer conference of the Pennsylvania Schools Boards Association on July 10, 2010 in Gettysburg, Pa. Joe also completed two searches for the position of Superintendent of Schools for the Blue Mountain and Pine Grove Area School Districts this summer. Finally, Dr. Yarworth recently co-authored "Educated Guest: Liberal Arts Education? Now More than Ever" for his Reading Eagle column.
