

Criteria for Community PRIDE Awards

Nominee should demonstrate one or more of the following characteristics:

Perseverance

- ★ Employee shows consistence of his/her work ethic.
- ★ Employee follows through on a designated project.
- ★ Employee completes a project with excellence.

Respect

- ★ Employee demonstrates excellent customer service, internally and/or externally.
- ★ Employee performs good deeds for others.

Initiative

- ★ Employee initiates a cost-saving idea.
- ★ Employee initiates a best-practice idea.
- ★ Employee engages in knowledge-building activities: i.e. he/she uses and/or shares his/her knowledge with the community and with students through innovative classes and campus programming.
- ★ Employee creates a project that benefits others.
- ★ Employee engages in innovative thinking and innovative projects.

Desire

- ★ Employee excels in his/her job.
- ★ Employee sets and accomplishes high goals for him/herself.
- ★ Employee shows desire to pursue the high standards of the College.
- ★ Employee goes a step beyond expectations.
- ★ Employee seeks to improve his/her self professionally.
- ★ Employee seeks to improve his/her department.

Enthusiasm

- ★ Employee implements and promotes a new club or activity for the betterment of the campus community.
- ★ Employee motivates others and is a positive mentor.