WOMEN’S STUDIES
COMBINED CONCENTRATION

Seven courses are required, including three core courses, and four electives:

Core Courses

- IDS 303 (Sex Roles: An Introduction to Women’s Studies)
- IDS 323 (Women and Men: Debating the Differences)
- WMS 400 (Seminar in Women’s Studies)

Elective Courses

Although listings and topics vary, the following are some of the courses available for the Women’s Studies combined concentration:

- ANT 320 (Sex, Gender & Culture)
- ENG 235 (Women Writing in America)
- ENG 235 (Black Women Writers)
- ENG 235 (American Women Playwrights)
- ENG 390 (Women’s Texts)
- ENG 390 (Women & Literature: Middle Ages & Renaissance)
- HIS 311 (U.S. Social History: American Family 1600-1900)
- IDS 303 (Sex Roles: An Introduction to Women’s Studies)
- IDS 323 (Women and Men: Debating the Difference)
- LAS 340 (Women in Latin America)
- PHI 228 (The Feminine Face of Philosophy)
- PSY 406 (Psychology of Gender)
- REL 244 (Women and the Bible)
- REL 255 (Goddess: East & West)
- SOC 261 (The Family)
- SOC 312 (Intimate Relations)
- SPI 244 (Science and Gender)
WOMEN’S STUDIES
Program

Five courses are required for this program, including:

_____ IDS 303 (Sex Roles: An Introduction to Women’s Studies) and / or
_____ IDS 323 (Women and Men: Debating the Differences)

Four elective courses from the following (or students may also choose to take both women’s studies IDS courses and three of the following):

ANT 320 (Sex, Gender & Culture)  IDS 323 (Women and Men: Debating the ENG 235 (Women Writing in America) Difference)
ENG 235 (Black Women Writers)  LAS 340 (Women in Latin America)
ENG 235 (American Women Playwrights) PHI 228 (The Feminine Face of Philosophy)
ENG 390 (Women’s Texts)  PSY 406 (Psychology of Gender)
ENG 390 (Women & Literature: Middle REL 244 (Women and the Bible)
Ages & Renaissance)  REL 255 (Goddess: East & West)
HIS 311 (U.S. Social History: American SOC 261 (The Family)
Family 1600-1900)  SOC 312 (Intimate Relations)
IDS 303 (Sex Roles: An Introduction SPI 244 (Science and Gender) to Women’s Studies)

04 / 05