NEXT FACULTY MEETING

The next faculty meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 9, 2015, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the Campus Center South Lounge.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Mary Jane Androne (English) presented a paper "Images of Labor and Sembene's Vision of Senegal's Future" at the African Literature Association conference at Bayreuth University, Bayreuth, Germany in June.

Jon Bekken (Communications) co-guest curated, with Alexis Buss, an exhibit on the life and legacy of IWW songwriter and organizer Joe Hill for the American Swedish Historical Museum in Philadelphia. It will open for the Labor Day weekend. In addition to being a prolific and popular writer of labor songs, Joe Hill also wrote several articles for the IWW and other newspapers, including a report of the 1906 San Francisco earthquake for a Gävle, Sweden, newspaper. Bekken and Buss also produced a special edition of the IWW's annual labor history calendar to mark the centenary of Joe Hill's execution, and worked together on a collection of his writings which will be released by Haymarket Books in November. Bekken also moderated a panel for the law division and served as discussant for the best research papers panel for the Participatory Journalism division at the annual conference of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication in August.

Justin Couchman (Psychology) presented research on metacognition during college exams, co-authored with John Vasko '15, at the 16th Biennial Conference of the European Association for Research on Learning and Instruction in Limassol, Cyprus. He also presented research on therapy dog attachment in children, co-authored with Ashleigh Weidner ’15, at the 24th Annual Meeting of the International Society for Anthrozoology in Saratoga Springs, NY. Also, he and Noelle Miller ’14 published an article in the journal Metacognition & Learning on the first-instinct memory fallacy and how it relates to revising answers.

The Department of Chemistry has received a Jean Dreyfus Boissevain Lectureship for Undergraduate Institutions to bring Prof. Robert Bergman (UC Berkeley) to campus (April 28 and 29, 2016) to give a series of lectures, all of which will be open to the public. Additionally, the grant will provide support for 2 undergraduate students to perform research next summer in the chemistry department.

Matt Fotis (Theatre) presented “The Three Pulls: Perfecting Second Beats in Long Form Improv” at the Association for Theatre in Higher Education conference in Montreal. His play David Crespy & The Chamber Order of Insurance Hallows received its world premiere at the 23:59 New Play Festival in Columbia, MO, where it won the inaugural Audience Choice Award.
Karen Jogan (Modern Foreign Languages) chaired the Middle States peer evaluation team for Universidad Mayor de Chile, Santiago and Temuco Chile. Following its June meeting at the Commission, Universidad Mayor became the first South American university to be fully accredited by any U.S. agency. In August, she was plenary speaker for the 23rd annual convention of Peru TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages) in Trujillo, Peru. Her plenary presentation was "Listening to U.S. Culture: adapting authentic listening texts." She also presented "Be your own researcher: steps for an effective action research project."

Elizabeth Kiester (Sociology) co-authored a paper entitled "Bringing Them 'Out of the Shadows': Analyzing the Movement to Reframe the Immigration Policy Narrative in Utah" that was published in the Journal of Sociology and Social Work (June 2015). She also presented her paper, "Where Motherhood Matters: Understanding the Effect of State Context on the Salience of Motherhood" at the American Sociological Association Conference in Chicago in August.

Samira Mehta (Religious Studies) was quoted in the September 4 Reading Eagle’s article “Expanded Mercy: Pope’s softer stance on abortion a gesture toward hurt, angry Catholics.” She was also appointed to the Board of the Association for Jewish Studies Women’s Caucus.

Suzanne Palmer (Business) organized and moderated a panel titled “What the Business Law Professor Needs to Know about Pre-Law Advising” at the Academy of Legal Studies in Business annual conference in August.

Lindsay Phillips (ADP Psychology) presented a poster at the 27th Annual Convention of the Association for Psychological Science, New York, NY, entitled Stigma toward substance use: No differences between gender and substance type. This was coauthored by: Atherine Shaw (ADP graduate and doctoral student at Capella University), Zach Greth (undergraduate at University of North Carolina at Charlotte), Ashlee Raub-Rodriguez (ADP graduate and graduate student at Temple University), and Nicole Rodenbaugh (ADP graduate). She also gave an invited lecture in July at the Human Rights Forum Grand Rounds, Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia, PA, entitled Reentry and Human Rights. Finally, Lindsay presented a poster at the 123rd annual meeting of the American Psychological Association, Toronto, Ontario in August entitled, Service learning research projects: Student satisfaction and tips for educators. This was coauthored by ADP graduates: Nicole Rodenbaugh, Ashlee Raub-Rodriguez, Heather Ansel, and Joseph Fredericks.

Ian Rhile (Chemistry) published an article “Conformational Change with Steric Interactions Affects the Inner Sphere Component of Concerted Proton–Electron Transfer in a Pyridyl-Appended Radical Cation System” in the Journal of Organic Chemistry with former students Crina Sasaran ’09, Jonathan Geruntho ’10, Robert Richards ’12, Brittney Tiley ’12, Wing-Sze “Katherine” Tong ’12, Matthew Zuchero ’12, Evan Welker ’13, and Melissa Vetteson ’15, and former faculty member Jeff Wolbach. The article can be found at http://pubs.acs.org/doi/abs/10.1021/acs.joc.5b01427.

Albright was well represented in the June production of Romeo and Juliet for the Berks County Performing Arts in the Park series. Julia Matthews (Theatre) played the Nurse; Matt Fotis (Theatre) played Lord Capulet; Doug Stenberg (Education) played Lord Montague; Nate Rothermel ’18 played Paris; and Devin Palmieri ’17 performed in the ensemble.
Janice Rodríguez (Modern Foreign Languages) and Michele Mislevy presented “Explaining Everything Before Class: Flipping a College World Languages Classroom” at the Resources for the Electronic Classroom Conference: A Faculty-Student Partnership at West Chester University on May 14, 2015.

Kristen Woodward’s (Art) solo show Animus: Encaustics and Paintings by Kristen Woodward will open at Elmira College on September 17.

Student Accomplishments

The ADP Blue Bell Psychology 12 cohort presented their class research project at the 27th Annual Convention of the Association for Psychological Science, New York, NY in May. The presentation was entitled, Social influences on food choice: Women eat like their peers. This was presented by Sherri Razaq-Thiers and faculty advisor, Lindsay Phillips. In addition to Sherri, all other Blue Bell 12 students co-authored the presentation, including Jennifer McIntyre, Sarah Beatty, Christine Maikweki, Demetra Valentine, and Kristen Young.

PROVOST’S ANNOUNCEMENTS

It is my pleasure to announce that Carla Abodalo, Sociology and Melissa Katz, Modern Foreign Languages have been promoted to Senior Instructor.

Sabbaticals: David Osgood, Professor of Biology will be on sabbatical during the Fall of 2015. Arcana Albright, Associate Professor of French and Bruce Auerbach, Professor of Political Science will be on sabbatical during the 2015-16 academic year. Please note that faculty on sabbatical are not expected to participate in any college events or to respond to email or phone calls during the period of the sabbatical.

Leave: Erin Ventresca, Assistant Professor of Biology and Lindsay Phillips, Associate Professor of Psychology, Accelerated Degree Program will be on family leave during the Fall of 2015.

The Experiential Learning and Career Development Center welcomes you back to the 2015-2016 academic year! Don’t cancel your class if you are going to a conference—we can develop specific workshops for your students based on their needs for study abroad, internships, careers or job searching. We are open to partnering and collaborating with you and your students for networking, alumni sessions or specific events. You will see our staff out and about this semester since our plan is to go where the students are to facilitate information sessions, answer questions, and help students navigate the journey of incorporating experiential learning in their career planning and scholarly endeavors. If you can think of places where your students tend to congregate, let us know. We look forward to working with you this year.

Accreditation: Our liaison to the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, Dr. Christy Faison, visited us on September 3 and gave a very positive review of our progress. More work remains on our self-study design, after which the campus will need to begin in earnest on our self-study research and report. Stay tuned.

Mellon Grant. The College was fortunate enough to receive a Mellon Foundation grant to support programming and undergraduate research in the humanities; please forward ideas for speakers to John Pankratz and the Experience Committee.

Searches. A number of departments have searches approved for this year. Chairs are encouraged to move expeditiously in order to improve their chances for a successful search. A fall meeting of the joint FEC-EPC committee will be announced shortly regarding emergency requests for this year.

Act 153. You may recall the announcement last spring of a new PA act that would require virtually all college employees to complete several background checks due to having persons under 18 on campus. That legislation has since been amended, in part through the good lobbying efforts of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania (AICUP). The amended act excludes employees at institutions of higher education whose direct contact with those under 18 in the course of employment is limited to either (A) prospective students visiting a campus or (B) matriculated students who are enrolled at the institution.

Retirement Initiative Update: The Albright Retirement Community (ARC) was formed with the support of a Sloan Foundation grant, a new group has been formed at Albright. The mission of ARC is to provide retired faculty and staff opportunities to participate with colleagues in social, educational, and volunteer activities while maintaining a connection with the Albright community. The college has provided space on campus for the retiree organization in Sage House, located at 1807 Linden Street, next to the Public Safety building. During the past several months, with the support of the grant, faculty and staff retirees have participated in events such as trips to the Philadelphia Zoo, the Barnes Foundation, the Brandywine Museum, and a picnic at a Reading Phillies game. Events planned for fall include Albright theater events, a Reading Royals game, a play at the Miller Center, and a steam train trip to the fall festival in Jim Thorpe, among other activities. Space for activities is limited and filled on a first-come basis, but the ARC Steering Committee accommodates as many retirees as it can. ARC encourages retired staff and faculty to take part in the programs. If you know a college retiree, please ask the person to contact ARC for more information. Send the retiree’s contact information to Cindy Becker by email at arc@albright.edu or by mail at Geiser House, Albright College, 13th and Bern Sts. Reading, PA 19604. An e-mail address is preferred to get information to the retiree quicker and to reduce costs.

Please see the August Welcome Back letter for further updates and teaching-related reminders, including the fact that Disability Services has relocated to accessible space in the administration building, between the Writing Center and the President’s office.
