

GENERAL EDUCATION WORKSHEET, Starting with the Class Incoming Fall 2020

The GE requirements listed below are linked to specific learning outcomes as outlined in the GE Program document.

COURSES

SEMESTER TAKEN

First-Year Seminar (FYS)

International students must complete or be exempted from ALP/SPI 102 before taking FYS 100.

English Composition (1-2 courses)

Placement determines whether a student begins at ENG 101, 101+, or 102; international students must complete or be exempted from ALP/SPI 102 before taking ENG 101.

World Languages and Cultures (2 courses in same language)

Placement determines whether a student begins at 101, 102, 201/203, 202/204 or 301 (202/204 and 301 in Spanish or French only).

Foundations (5 courses)

One from each area below; may count toward a major, at the discretion of the department chair or major coordinator.

Humanities:

Social Science:

Natural Science:

Quantitative Skills:

Fine Arts:

Connections (2 courses)

FYS and ENG 102 must be completed before taking a Connections course. At least one (1) Connections course must be designated for global content, and at least one (1) must be a humanities course. If a single course satisfies both criteria, any second Connections course can complete the requirement. Connections courses do NOT count toward the major and must be from TWO DIFFERENT departments. Connections courses may count toward a minor.

Connections: _____

Connections: _____

Synthesis Course (1 course)

At least 3 of 5 Foundations courses, 1 Connections course, AND EXPERIENCE EVENTS must be completed before taking a Synthesis course (completion of two semesters of MUS 103, 104 or 105 will count as a Foundations – Fine Arts for this purpose). The Synthesis course does NOT count toward the major. The Synthesis course may count toward a minor.

Albright Cultural Experience events (12 events)

To be completed before students enroll in Synthesis course (8 for first-year students transferring in spring semester, 6 for sophomore transfers, none for junior transfers)